

Promise From God

The Lord said to Moses at Mount Sinai, “Tell the people of Israel this: ‘When you enter the land I will give you, let it have a special time of rest, to honor the Lord. You may plant seed in your field for six years, and you may trim your vineyards for six years and bring in their fruits. But during the seventh year, you must let the land rest. This will be a special time to honor the Lord. You must not plant seed in your field or trim your vineyards. You must not cut the crops that grow by themselves after harvest, or gather the grapes from your vines that are not trimmed. The land will have a year of rest.

You may eat whatever the land produces during that year of rest. It will be food for your men and women servants, for your hired workers, and for the foreigners living in your country. It will also be food for your cattle and the wild animals of your land. Whatever the land produces may be eaten.”

We're destroying our farm lands that give us vegetables by not letting the land rest as it says in the Bible.

You can't prove God exists and you can't prove God doesn't exist.” This is the response one often hears when the question of God's existence is raised. So why take a chance with your salvation?

The questions to which God is the answer are not scientific questions. Humans around the world want to know why the universe exists, the purpose of our existence and what will happen after death. Science doesn't 'have a clue' as to the answers to these questions.

We are meant to not know, and believe anyway. It's up to you, the believer, or non-believer.

“Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.”
(Hebrews 11:1)

“Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.” (John 20:29)

We are to have faith but not blind faith. If you believe the bible. It says everyone knows a God exists. Romans 1:18-26. It is up to us to tell people about Christ.

Does God exist? The complexity of our planet points to a deliberate Designer who not only created our universe, but sustains it today.

Many examples showing God's design could be given, possibly with no end.

Three out of five scientists do not believe in God, but two out of five do.

God Is the Best Explanation for the Beginning of the Universe.

Whatever begins to exist must have a cause. The universe began to exist. Therefore the universe has a cause.

Surely it is more reasonable to hold to this premise than to believe that things pop into existence out of nothing and by nothing.

Rev. 20:1-3

“Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. He laid hold of the dragon, that serpent of old, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years; and he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, so that he should deceive the nations no more till a thousand years pass.” But after these things he must be released for a little while.

Curse the Earth

"For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch." (Malachi 4:1)

"And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts." (Malachi 4:3)

"Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse." (Malachi 4:5-6)

Evil from God

"Out of the mouth of the most high proceedeth not evil and good? Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?" (Lamentations 3: 38-39)

Get Thee behind Me Satan

"And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church..." (Matthew 16:18)

Fire of God

"Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench." (I Kings 18:38)

God rejoices your death

"And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to naught; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it." (Deuteronomy 28:63)

Wars Must Be

"And when ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, are ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in diverse places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows." (Mark 13:7-8)

I Thessalonians 4:14

"For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus' will God bring with him."

God loves you, even those who don't believe. God loves sinners and will forgive them if they only ask him.

You don't have to be a religious fanatic, or go to church every time church is in session, just believe in a God that can and will save your soul.
